Jerry Phelps Post 237 Commander Commander's Corner

American Legion family and friends let me start by saying that I hope everyone had a Merry Christmas and got to spend time surrounded by family and friends.

While we have completed another calendar year, the American Legion fiscal year is still in full swing, we have 6 more months left. My staff and officers have been busy these past 6 months. Below I would like to list some of the accomplishments that have been made:

- The Post hosted a golf tournament, Spearheaded by the 1st Vice Commander Chris Perry, that raised money for 2 charities, Veteran's Court and the BeArded Warriors.
- The 3rd Vice Commander, Bob Wasniewski has been very busy:
  - He has discovered that we were not charging sales tax and corrected it.
  - He developed and instituted an inventory control system that tracks our food costs for better financial accountability.

- At Bob's request during the sub-zero wind chills the week before Christmas, the Post donated $500 and the club donated $500 to purchase blankets, tarps, gloves and other needed items for the homeless to survive.
- The Post teamed with the Bearded Warriors and collected items and helped distribute Buckets of Hope for the homeless.
- The Constitution and By-Laws Committee, spearheaded by The SJA Tom Hartley has successfully finished streamlining our Constitution and By-Laws and have been approved by the membership
- The Communications Committee, spearheaded by 2nd Vice Commander, Tom Paone has added valuable members to the committee that have increased our social media footprint and has increased foot traffic to the post.
- The Trustees and Building Committee lead by Robert Barnett have continued with the repair and upkeep of the Post.
- An effort was spearheaded by Rick Jarrell of the Honor Guard to have the Honor Guard recognized as its own 501(c)3 organization. That effort is almost complete.

I hope that most of you have seen the changes and the good things that are taking place around our Post home. If, not, I would encourage you to visit soon. Other changes and improvements are coming.

This is just a reminder that the calendar says 2023 which means that all 2022 membership cards have expired. I would like to encourage everyone to renew their memberships by January 31st as this will be the day that the Adjutant cuts off all of the door key cards that have not been renewed.

MADISON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL JROTC HONORS OUR VETERANS

Madison County High School JROTC (Tiger Battalion) in recognition of Veterans Day held a Memorial Tribute on November 3, 2022 from 11:15-12:15 AM to honor veterans of all services from the local area. LTC. Brian K. Maijala was kind enough to invite me to attend and I was honored to do so.

LTC. Maijala who hosted the event welcomed about 20 veterans at a meet and greet to begin the event. Following that the group was escorted through the corridors on a Veterans Honor Walk with each side being lined by JROTC cadets standing at Present Arms. As the group entered the auditorium we passed between four cadets with arched sabers and American Flags and were seated in front of the podium. The stands on both sides were filled with the High School band on one side and the rest of the Bn. Cadet Corps and families on the other. Following the posting of the colors and the National Anthem the Cadet Creed was recited and the Cadet Commander made his remarks. Next a Tribute Video was played which contained photos of former Tiger Bn. Members who served in the Armed Forces along with photos that were submitted by those veterans which were in attendance. Then LTC. Maijala explained the history of the “Soldiers Cross” a statute of which was present at the front of the auditorium.

Before closing the Tribute the band played each of the Service Songs during which those veterans in attendance stood to be recognized and applauded following the playing of each song. At the end the veterans were escorted to the cafeteria for a lunch. I would be remiss if I did not comment on the level of professionalism of this entire ceremony. I have attended a number of these over my years of military service and I can honestly say I have never seen any other more well organized and executed than what I observed by the Tiger Bn. LTC. Maijala, the Cadet Corps and school administrators of Madison High School should be very proud of this Veteran’s Day Tribute. WELL DONE!

Desert Storm

Though the long running war between Iran and Iraq had ended in a United Nations brokered ceasefire in August 1988, by mid-1990 the two countries had yet to begin negotiating a permanent peace treaty. When their foreign ministers met in Geneva that July, prospects for peace seemed bright. Two weeks later, however, Saddam Hussein delivered a speech in which he accused neighboring Kuwait of siphoning crude oil from their common border, claiming that Kuwait and Saudi Arabia were conspiring to keep oil prices low in an effort to pander to Western oil buying nations. In addition to Hussein's incendiary speech, Iraq had begun amassing troops on Kuwait's border. Alarmed by these actions, President Hosni Mubarak of Egypt initiated negotiations between Iraq and Kuwait, but Hussein broke off the negotiations after only two hours, and on August 2, 1990, ordered the invasion of Kuwait.

Hussein's assumption that his fellow Arab states would stand by him proved to be a miscalculation. Alarmed by these actions, two-thirds of the 21 members of the Arab League condemned Iraq's act of aggression, and Saudi Arabia's King Fahd, along with Kuwait's government-in-exile, turned to the United States and other members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) for support. U.S. President George H.W. Bush immediately condemned the invasion, as did the governments of Britain and the Soviet Union. On November 29, 1990, the U.N. Security Council authorized the use of "all necessary means" of force against Iraq if it did not withdraw from Kuwait by the following January 15.

Hussein defied the Security Council, and early on the morning of January 17, 1991, the Persian Gulf War began with a massive U.S. led air offensive known as Operation Desert Storm. The U.S. was accompanied by troops sent by NATO allies as well as Egypt and several other Arab nations. The coalition effort benefited from the latest military technology, including Stealth bombers, Cruise missiles, so-called "Smart" bombs with laser-guidance systems and infrared night-bombing equipment. The Iraqi air force was either destroyed early on or opted out of combat under the relentless attack. After 42 days of relentless attacks by the allied coalition in the air and on the ground, President Bush declared a ceasefire on February 28; by that time most Iraqi forces in Kuwait had either surrendered or fled. Though the Persian Gulf War was initially considered an unqualified success for the international coalition, simmering conflict in the troubled region led to a second Gulf War-known as the Iraq War-that began in 2003.

Desert Storm Key Facts:

1. More than 500,000 American troops deployed to Saudi Arabia as part of Operation Desert Shield, in case Iraqi troops attacked Saudi Arabia
2. On January 17, 1991, Operation Desert Shield became Operation Desert Storm, backed by public support after diplomacy failed
3. Desert Storm became the largest air campaign since the conflict in Southeast Asia
4. The U.S. and 40 allied nations, including several Arab nations, flew more than 18,000 air deployment missions, more than 116,000 combat air sorties and dropped 88,500 tons of bombs
5. After air attacks that lasted for six weeks, the ground campaign lasted only 100 hours before Kuwait was liberated
6. Iraq tried to split the coalition by launching Scud missiles at Israel, but Israel refrained from responding, thanks to its partnership with the United States
7. Desert Storm saw the first use of the MIM-104C Patriot missile system in combat, where it was used to intercept Scud missiles. It was also the first time the Air Force used stealth and space systems support capabilities against a modern, integrated air defense.
8. About 697,000 U.S. troops took part in the war, with 299 losing their lives

Buckets for Homeless Veterans

Post 237 teamed with the Bearded Warriors and with other veterans and community organizations to provide buckets full of supplies for homeless and homeless veterans in the Huntsville community. Post members donated hundreds of packet of chicken and tuna to the drive. On December 18, 2022 the supplies were staged and packed in the Post 237 ballroom. Below are pictures from that event.

From the 3rd Vice Commander 12/22/2022

Our Post was involved in the Buckets for Homeless Veterans event this past weekend. While delivering the buckets, it became apparent that there was an urgent need for help. With the weather forecasted to be sub-zero this coming weekend, these people urgently need blankets, tarps, and duct tape.

I asked the Executive Committee to approve a request for $500.00 from one of the Post accounts. The Club account matched the $500.00 to give the Post a total of $1,000 to purchase these urgently needed items.

I received immediate approval on this request from the Executive Committee. With the allocated money, your Post was able to purchase and distribute the following items:

- 80 blankets
- 60 pairs of socks
- 48 pairs of gloves
- 25 large rolls of duct tape
- 40 tarps
- Around 100 pieces of clothing (shirts, jackets, pants, & hoodies)
- Personal hygiene products for women
- Towels, rugs, and pillows

I would like to give a big shout-out to Channa Perez and Deanna Moody for doing the grunt work to make this happen. WELL DONE!

Yesterday was National Homeless Person's Remembrance Day. I cannot think of a better way for this Post to demonstrate our commitment to supporting veterans and the community we serve.

Also, a big thank you to Little Lots in Owens Cross Roads and America's Thrift Store on Drake Ave. for their generosity in allowing Channa and Deanna to stretch our dollars and help us provide more supplies at this critical time!

Honor Guard Call to Arms

The Post 237 Honor Guard has dwindled down to about half as many members as it once had. Over the past few years, deaths, members moving away, medical issues or just plain old age has taken its toll on the Honor Guard. The Honor Guard has been able to maintain operations without denying any request for services, but at times we have had a limited number of available members. In the past two years we have provided over 200 military funerals, averaging about two per week. We are on call seven days a week. Many of our members have full time jobs and can participate only on the weekends, leaving the full-time retirees to fend for the weekdays. We combine efforts with the Post 229 Honor Guard to fulfill the funeral requests and maintain a perfect record. Our goal is to have enough members to rotate so that no one person must do all the funerals. We need your help to make this happen.

If you feel duty bound to pay your respects to veterans in their passing, join the Honor Guard. The Honor Guard will issue you a summer and winter uniform with all accessories. All you have to provide is your American legion cap and a pair of black shoes. Transportation from Post 237 to the assignment and back is provided by the Post 237 van. The rifle salute uses M1 Garand rifles of WWII vintage that have been restored.

To join the Honor Guard, contact Earl Hokanson the Honor Guard Commander at 256-527-4009.

HUMOR IN UNIFORM

WHY SOLDIERS SHOULD BE OVER 50

The Army only accepts males younger than 35. They've got it backwards. Instead of sending 18-year-olds to fight in wars, they should send old guys. You shouldn't be able to join until you're over 50. Why? Researchers say 18-year-olds think about sex every 10 seconds. Old guys only think about sex every 15 seconds, leaving more than 28,000 additional seconds per day per old recruit to concentrate on the enemy.

Young guys haven't lived long enough to be cranky and grumpy. Cranky and grumpy old guy soldiers would be the Army's secret weapon. If old guys can't kill the enemy, they could complain them into surrendering. "My back hurts!" "I'm hungry!" "Where's the remote control?"

An 18-year-old hasn't had a legal bottle of beer yet and shouldn't go to war until they are at least old enough to legally drink beer. On the other hand, the average old guy has consumed 26,000 gallons of beer by the time he's 50. A jaunt through the desert with a backpack and an M-60 would do wonders for his beer belly.

An 18-year-old doesn't like to get up before 10 a.m. Old guys get up early so that they can steal the neighbor's newspaper. If an old guy got captured by the enemy, he couldn't provide them any information about his unit because he forgot it. Name, rank and serial number would be a real brainteaser.

Boot camp would be easier for old guys; they're used to being screamed at by their wives. Old guys already have a deep appreciation for rifles. They like them better than naps. But the Army would have to lighten up on the obstacle course. Besides, there's not a single 20-foot wall with a rope hanging over the side in the entire desert.

Drill Sergeants would have to be retrained: "Now, mister, drop down and give me....er....one!" They could eliminate the running part. That's a waste of good energy. No one has ever outrun a bullet anyway. Patience is something most 18-year-olds simply do not have. And for good reason. An 18-year-old has his whole world ahead of him. He's still learning to shave, to actually carry on a conversation, to learn that a pierced tongue catches food particles, and to learn that a 200-watt 15-inch woofer in the back seat of a Honda will rupture an eardrum.

These are all good reasons to keep our sons at home to learn more about life before sending them off to war. Let the old guys track down the dirty, rotten cowards who are our enemies. The last thing our enemies want to see is a million old guys with attitudes.
