Jerry Phelps Post 237 Commander Commander's Corner

Greetings Legionnaires, American Legion Auxiliary, SAL, and American Legion Riders. The month of April was a busy month for the post in term of events. The social quarters started bar bingo on Sundays, which has given a big boost to the Post. The charity fundraiser for bikes for babies and backpacks for homeless veterans is doing well. The post fundraiser went really well, we sold out of everything. Family day went well also. In the midst of those events we also had our nominations for the post elections.

The month of May also looks to be a very busy month at the Post. A steak night is planned. We have our Post elections on Monday May 15th from noon-6PM. The post will be serving hotdogs and hamburgers after all volunteers return from Memorial Day presentations

I will be placing the wreath at the Veteran's Memorial on Monday May 29th. If you are a Gold Star Family Member I would like to ask for one volunteer to present the wreath with me. Please reach out to me to let me know if you are interested.

The Post normally teams up with Team RWB to place flags on veteran's graves at Huntsville Memory Garden. This year the flags will be placed on May 20th at 11AM. All help will be appreciated. Flag retrieval will be on June 3rd at 11AM.

Finally, I hope everyone has a safe Memorial Day.

Commander Jerry Phelps

MEMORIAL DAY

OPPORTUNITY
PATRIOTISM

The reasons behind choosing military service differ from person to person. But as varied as the reasons are, there's a universal understanding: Service means sacrifice. Even if that sacrifice is one's own life. The impact of this ultimate sacrifice ripples through our communities. Service member's death touch more than just the lives of their loved ones and friends. When their stories are shared in our neighborhoods, our homes, our schools and our places of worship, these men and women become a part of the collective identity of our hometowns. The stories of their sacrifices live on in the pride of memories of their loved ones and at observances and through inscriptions and plaques dedicated to the legacy of their generation. Woven into the fabric of our country are those who died while wearing the cloth of our nation. They instill a sense of pride among citizens. They inspire new generations to raise their hands in service. There is no greater sacrifice than to offer one's life for the greater good. As President Abraham Lincoln observed more than 150 years ago:

"This extraordinary war in which we are engaged falls heavily upon all classes of people, but the most heavily upon the soldier. For it has been said, all that a man hath will he give for his life; and while all contribute of their substance, the soldier puts his life at stake, and often yields it up in his country's cause. The highest merit, then, is due to the soldier."

This respect we give to our fallen speaks to the value we place on their service. And it's not just back home that we remember them. These tributes begin at the very spots where they selflessly gave their lives---both for the brothers and sisters they stood shoulder to shoulder with and for their country. Tributes include the Battlefield Cross, which some historians say has its roots in the Civil War. Today, it's most recognizable as a helmet resting on top of an inverted rifle stuck in the ground with boots placed in front. Dog tags hang from the rifle. On the battlefield, members of the unit can come to this memorial and pay their final respects. →

In more recent conflicts, the military also paid tribute to those who died with fallen comrade and ramp ceremonies. These are part of the dignified transfer---the solemn return of service members from their theater of war back to the United States and to their loved ones for eternal rest.

The fallen comrade reception ceremonies happened at places including Bagram Airfield, Afghanistan and Balad Air Base, Iraq. The remains of those killed in action in theater were brought to the base. No matter the hour of day or night, when the announcement of their arrival came over the loudspeakers---often mere hours after their death---military personnel who were not on guard lined the road leading to the base's flight line and rendered a final salute as the Humvee carrying the body would slowly pass by to a waiting aircraft. On the flight line, a small group then conducted the ramp ceremony, carrying the transfer case onto the aircraft and draping an American flag over it for its journey to Dover Air Force Base in Delaware.

But some who died while serving have not yet made it back home to the United States. We honor them through tributes such as the Missing Man Table. It's an opportunity to reflect on those who are still missing in action or POWs.

But we don't just reflect. We act. By continuing to look for them, we honor their sacrifice. The Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency sends teams all over the world to tirelessly search land and sea to recover the remains of those who haven't returned home.

Robert "Spider" Parks, a deceased member of Post 237, was a very integral member of these search teams. Through this work they bring people home. People like Corporal Thomas Cooper, who was killed in 1943 during the Battle of Tarawa in the Central Pacific. In 2019---more than 76 years after his death---the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency identified his remains and he was finally brought home. Corporal Cooper's family was able to bury him with full honors at Arlington National Cemetery.

We're still looking for the rest. The agency estimates that more than 81,600 service members remain missing. Among them are 41,000 who are presumed lost at sea in the Indo-Pacific region. Some of those still missing at sea were killed aboard Japanese "hell ships" during World War II. Hell ships were what they called unmarked Japanese merchant ships that sailed between the Philippines and Japan during the war. They appeared to carry only Japanese military personnel and supplies. But below deck, crammed into dark, sweltering holds were Allied POWs. The conditions were deplorable. People were often heaped on top of each other, with no access to sanitation or light and little to no food. It's estimated that 126,000 Allied POWs were moved this way, including survivors of the Bataan Death March. More than 1,500 men died in their holds from heat and thirst or were killed by Japanese guards. But more than 19,000 died when the U.S. Navy and other Allied forces carried out attacks on these ships. The naval forces had no way of knowing their own people were hidden on board. All they knew was that they had to thwart the enemy's efforts to move supplies and personnel needed to prolong the war. We must continue to share their stories, to remember what they sacrificed for the rest of us.

Few men and women choose to put their lives on the line to serve and defend the Constitution. Few go toward danger. Few willingly face atrocities most of us can't fathom. Few volunteer to serve, knowing that death may be the outcome.

But we can ensure that those who make this choice and make the ultimate sacrifice can rest knowing they served with the thanks of grateful citizens and knowing that they won't be forgotten.

Announcing the 2023 Alabama Boys State

The American Legion Posts in Madison County are pleased to announce the 2023 Alabama Boys State convention. Boys State provides a unique opportunity for rising senior boys who are outstanding students and leaders in their schools to experience democracy at work, enhance their leadership skills, develop new friendships, and learn from Alabama political and business leaders.

The 2023 Boys State convention will be held at Troy University in Troy, Alabama starting Sunday May 30, 2023 and ending Saturday June 3, 2023.

We strongly encourage that each prospective delegate review the Alabama Boys State website at: <http://alboysstate.org>.

Each applicant in Madison County is required to submit the Boys State to the Department of Alabama by May 15, 2023. Also the applicant should submit the 2023 Madison County Boys State Information Sheet to Tom Paone by May 12, 2023 if he wishes to attend the Madison County Boys State Orientation or to ride the bus transportation to Troy.

Delegates should plan to attend the Madison County Boys State Orientation at the American Legion Post 237 Annex on Tuesday, May 16, 2022 at 6:00 PM. The Post 237 Annex is located at 3806 Colonial Park Circle SW, Huntsville, AL 35805. Yancy Mitchell, Dean of Counselors, and past Boys State delegates will discuss what to expect and how to get the most out of the Boys State experience. We will also review the logistics and rules. Because of seating restrictions we ask each family to limit attendance at the orientation to the student and his parents.

Bus transportation to and from the Boys State convention will be provided for the first 32 students who reserve a bus seat by completing and returning the 2023 Madison County Boys State Information sheet.

If you have any questions regarding this program email Tom Paone, Madison County focal point for the 2023 Alabama Boys State, at vicecdr2@legion237.com. Additional information and registration forms are posted at the 2023 Boys State web page: <https://www.legion237.com/index.php?id=211>

HONOR GUARD DONATIONS:
YOUR TAX DEDUCTIBLE DONATIONS FOR 2023

Honor Guard Call to Arms

The Post 237 Honor Guard has dwindled down to about half as many members as it once had. Over the past few years, deaths, members moving away, medical issues or just plain old age has taken its toll on the Honor Guard. The Honor Guard has been able to maintain operations without denying any request for services, but at times we have had a limited number of available members. In the past two years we have provided over 200 military funerals, averaging about two per week. We are on call seven days a week. Many of our members have full time jobs and can participate only on the weekends, leaving the full-time retirees to fend for the weekdays. We combine efforts with the Post 229 Honor Guard to fulfill the funeral requests and maintain a perfect record. Our goal is to have enough members to rotate so that no one person must do all the funerals. We need your help to make this happen.

If you feel duty bound to pay your respects to veterans in their passing, join the Honor Guard. The Honor Guard will issue you a summer and winter uniform with all accessories. All you have to provide is your American legion cap and a pair of black shoes. Transportation from Post 237 to the assignment and back is provided by the Post 237 van. The rifle salute uses M1 Garand rifles of WWII vintage that have been restored.

To join the Honor Guard, contact Earl Hokanson the Honor Guard Commander at 256-527-4009.

HUMOR IN UNIFORM

HOW THE AMERICANS ACTUALLY WON WORLD WAR I

The Germans and Americans were reaching a stalemate in World War I. In WWI there was trench warfare, and neither the Americans nor the Germans could get an upper hand. One day an American Army Private came up with a plan that could win them the war. This Private explained his plan to his trench mates, and they figured, "why not. It's not like we have any better ideas." The next day, an American soldier called out, "Hans!" A German popped up and shouted back, "Ja!" Boom, the German soldier was shot dead. The next day an American shouted again, "Hans!" Another German soldier popped up and shouted back, "Ja!" and was also shot dead. This process continued over the next couple of days. The Germans were losing large numbers of soldiers and were now finally catching on to the trick the American soldiers were doing. The Germans had an emergency meeting. They thought they could come back from the heavy losses using the same tactics as the Americans. A German officer asked, "What is a popular American name?" "John!" replied another. The next day, the Germans decided to execute their plan. A German soldier shouted, "John!" An American called back, "Is that you Hans!? "Ja!" And that is how the Americans won WWI.

Around the Post

In the summer of 2019 John Murphy approached the Post 237 Commander with the idea that we should have an ROTC coordinator dedicated to working with the 7 JROTC and 1 college ROTC program that the Post is assigned to. John's Army experience on the staff of the Princeton University and Eastern US ROTC programs made him the perfect fit. The Post Executive Board named John Murphy the first Post 237 ROTC Liaison Officer. John went right to work meeting the cadre at all of the schools and familiarizing them with what the Legion has to offer, He wrote a brochure explaining the Legion's Americanism programs and worked diligently to gain the trust of the cadre at each of the schools.

After four years John's has decided that he will be stepping down as Post 237 ROTC Liaison Officer because of ongoing health issues. We would like to thank John for his years of dedicated service in this position.
