Jerry Phelps Post 237 Commander Commander's Corner

Greetings once again, American Legion Post 237 Family. As some of you have seen, the post has undergone quite a few changes over the last 3 and a half months.

Our 1st Vice Commander, Club Manager, and members of the golf committee have been working hard on the fundraising golf tournament.

Our 2nd Vice Commander has had his hands full as well. The Communications Committee that he chairs have been working diligently to enhance our social media presence. He also volunteers on the building committee and whatever needs to get done. He is a tremendous asset to myself, the 3rd Vice Commander. and the post as a whole.

Our 3rd Vice commander has been hard at work to make changes for the betterment of the post. He has had help from the House Committee, the Building Committee, the 2nd Vice Commander and a host of volunteers for different events. If you see them at the post, give them a thank you, or let them know that we appreciate them. →

It appears that there are good things in the future for our Honor Guard. More details will come soon.

Lastly, remember the Early Bird Dinner on October 17th, dinner starts at 6 and the membership meeting starts at 7.

Commander Jerry Phelps

FROM THE 3RD VICE COMMANDER

Bob Wasniewski, Post 237 3rd Vice Commander

Hello, my fellow Legionnaires, Auxiliary Members, and Sons of the American Legion. September was another busy month at your Post. We are planning events for October including the Oktoberfest Celebration on Saturday the 8th as well as the Halloween Party on Saturday the 29th.

We are making some changes to the Social Quarters to improve our Post for all members. We now have the Video Message Board in the bar area posting news and upcoming events as well as helpful news articles. One of the large 85" TVs that was mounted on a mobile cart has now been installed in the bar area. I'm pleased to hear it has received many positive responses.

The review of all current operating procedures, inventories, and pricing is completed. I regret to inform you that after reviewing our current prices, adjustments will have to be made. As you all know with inflation being what it is, the price we pay for almost all items we purchase has been increasing, sometimes drastically. Prices will have to be raised on many items to cover our operating expenses. I promise to keep a close eye on our prices and keep them as low as possible.

We have some new events planned for the coming months. Keep an eye on your emails from the Communications Committee for the latest details.

I would also like to remind everyone that the ballroom is available to rent for all members as well as the public. Utilizing this space as much as possible is one of my main objectives.

MEDAL OF HONOR

In an October 8, 1918, attack that occurred during the Meuse-Argonne Offensive, Alvin York's battalion aimed to capture German positions near Hill 223 along the Decauville Railroad north of Chatel-Chehery, France. His actions that day earned him the Medal of Honor. He later recalled:

"The Germans got us, and they got us right smart. They just stopped us dead in our tracks. Their machine guns were up there on the heights overlooking us and well hidden, and we couldn't tell for certain where the terrible heavy fire was coming from. And I'm telling you they were shooting straight. Our boys just went down like the long grass before the mowing machine at home. Our attack just faded out and there we were, lying down, about halfway across the valley and those German machine guns and big shells getting us hard. Those machine guns were spitting fire and cutting down the undergrowth all around me something awful. The Germans were yelling orders. You never heard such a racket in all your life. I didn't have time to dodge behind a tree or dive into the brush. As soon as the machine guns opened fire on me, I began to exchange shots with them. There were over thirty of them in continuous action, and all I could do was touch the Germans off just as fast as I could. I was sharp shooting. All the time I kept yelling at them to come down. I didn't want to kill any more than I had to. But it was they or I. And I was giving them the best I had."

During the assault, a German officer led several Germans to the scene of the fighting and ran into York who shot several of them with his pistol. Imperial German Army First Lieutenant Paul Jurgen Vollmer, commanding the 120th Reserve Infantry Regiment's 1st Battalion, emptied his pistol trying to kill York while he was contending with the machine guns. Failing to injure York, and seeing his mounting losses, he offered in English to surrender the unit to York who accepted. At the end of the engagement, York and his seven men marched their German prisoners back to the American lines. Upon returning to his unit, York reported to his brigade Commander, Brigadier General Julian Lindsey, who remarked: "Well York, I hear you have captured the whole German Army." York replied: "No sir. I got only 132." York's actions silenced the German machine guns and was responsible for enabling the 328th Infantry to renew its attack to capture the Decauville Railroad. York was promptly promoted to sergeant and received the Distinguished Service Cross. A few months later, an investigation by York's chain of command resulted in an upgrade of his Distinguished Service Cross to the Medal of Honor, which was presented by the Commanding General of the American Expeditionary Forces, General John J. Pershing. The French Republic awarded him the Croix de Guerre, Medaille Militaire and Legion of Honor. In addition to his French medals, Italy awarded York the Croce al Merito di Guerra and Montenegro decorated him with its War Medal. He eventually received nearly 50 decorations. In attempting to explain his actions during the 1919 investigation that resulted in the Medal of Honor, York told General Lindsey "A higher power than man guided and watched over me and told me what to do."

Honor Guard Call to Arms

The Post 237 Honor Guard has dwindled down to about half as many members as it once had. Over the past few years, deaths, members moving away, medical issues or just plain old age has taken its toll on the Honor Guard. The Honor Guard has been able to maintain operations without denying any request for services, but at times we have had a limited number of available members. In the past two years we have provided over 200 military funerals, averaging about two per week. We are on call seven days a week. Many of our members have full time jobs and can participate only on the weekends, leaving the full-time retirees to fend for the weekdays. We combine efforts with the Post 229 Honor Guard to fulfill the funeral requests and maintain a perfect record. Our goal is to have enough members to rotate so that no one person must do all the funerals. We need your help to make this happen.

If you feel duty bound to pay your respects to veterans in their passing, join the Honor Guard. The Honor Guard will issue you a summer and winter uniform with all accessories. All you have to provide is your American legion cap and a pair of black shoes. Transportation from Post 237 to the assignment and back is provided by the Post 237 van. The rifle salute uses M1 Garand rifles of WWII vintage that have been restored.

To join the Honor Guard, contact Earl Hokanson the Honor Guard Commander at 256-527-4009.

HUMOR IN UNIFORM

Dear Mommy and Daddy,

I am well. Hope youse are too. Tell my big brothers Bubba and Bama that the Army is better than workin on the farm. Tell them to sign up before all the good jobs are gone. I wuz a bit slow in settling down at first because you don't hafta get outta bed until 6am. But I like sleepin in now cuz all yagotta do before morning vittles is make ya bed and shine ya boots and clean ya uniform. No cows to milk and no calves to feed and no hay to stack-notin. Ya haz gotta shower though but its not bad because theres lotsa hot water and even a light to see what ya doing. At morning vittles ya get cereal fruit and eggs but no possum stew or armadillo steaks like wot mommy makes. We do not get fed again until noon and by that time all the city boys are dragging their butts because we been on a five mile march. Geez its only just like walking to school. This one will kill my brothers with laughter. I keep gettin medals for shootin— dunno why. The bullseye is as big as a possums ass and it don't move and its not firing back at ya like the Hatfields did when our big bull got into their prize cows last year. All you gotta do is make yourself comfortable and hit the target. Its like taking candy from a baby. You don't even load your own cartridges they come in little boxes. I love the Army. Sometimes ya gotta wrestle with the city boys and I gotta be real careful coz they break easy. Its not like fightin with Bubba and Bama and the Johnson boys all at once like we do at home. Turns out I am not a bad boxer either and it looks like I am the best my platoons got. I have only been beatin once by a guy from the engineers-he is 6 feet 5 and weighs about 230 pounds. Only losin to him was not so bad since I am only 5 feet 3 and only weigh 120 pounds. I really love the Army. Tell the boys to sign up quick before word gets out how good the Army is.

Your lovin daughter,

Clementine
